

Quadratic.

Quadratic functions are functions whose highest order term is a function of x squared.

x squared is the most basic function.

General Quadratic is in the form $ax^2 + bx + c$ and you can enter values for a , b and c using the Secondary Variables dialog box.