

Grandfather's Clock

Tableaus build down circularly, regardless of suit or color. Top cards may be moved to other tableaus or to foundations. Empty tableaus may be filled with any available card.

Foundations build up circularly, in suit, until a card is played whose rank matches the pile's position on the clock face.

Goal: Move all cards to the foundations.