olivier@kagi.com is a virtual address that will always point to my current Internet address (it works like an alias).
If I don't answer you after 3 days, this means I temporarily have no access to Internet. Be patient, I always answer as soon as possible.

Don't hesitate to contact me ! I'd be glad to answer to your questions, help you, or at least consider your comments.
In general, I add the suggestions you make. Almost all the options in the Preferences... dialog are based on user-supplied suggestions.

And if you find some of the secret messages hidden in AutoCat™, let me know !
