

Using The Notebook Window

The 'Help' button at the bottom left of this window describes the use of the Notebook window. This button, and the information it displays will also be included in any new Notebook you create. You may wish to use the button to get an overview of how each Notebook works, and the features available.