

Laser Physics

U.S. Air Force (1961 - 1975):

Within the field of High Energy Laser physics, I conducted independent theoretical and experimental investigations of the propagation of High Energy Laser beams through the atmosphere. I published twelve papers in various technical journals and was awarded five patents on photodetector response enhancement techniques.

See the “Systems Analysis” Topic for further data pertaining to my work with High Energy Laser physics.