

Try to open the pdf file on the CD, if unable the user will see a message indicating that. A message box then appears and tells the user that Acrobat Reader is about to be installed. The message also tells the user manually open the pdf document on the CD by giving the path