

Freddi Fish And the Case of the Missing Kelp Seeds™* is the fourth title in the Humongous Entertainment Junior Adventures™ series.

Grandma Grouper's kelp seeds are missing! Someone has to find them or the fish in the ocean will starve. Freddi Fish and her sidekick, Luther, come to the rescue. Their goal: Find the missing treasure chest filled with the kelp seeds.

Kids will enjoy helping Freddi and Luther travel through this underwater maze of adventures. Grandma's treasure chest could be in any one of 40 places. Is it in the junkyard, the three caves, or could it be in the whale bones? To find out, you must locate the clues hidden in glass bottles. Obstacles are everywhere. Don't worry, throughout the journey there are over 200 items to help. Click on the wooden plank, or the purple sea urchins; maybe the fishing pole will be needed. Don't miss anything--every item you see could be important. But watch out for the sharks. They want Grandma's treasure, too.
