

Wing Commander® III: Heart of the Tiger™ Puts You in the Starring Role of an Interactive Movie!

Heart of the Tiger is pounding, beating, driving the stakes higher as you fend off the Kilrathi on all fronts. You've lasted long enough in this war to lose two carriers and countless friends. A talented pilot, you've also earned the grudging respect of your adversaries. After the destruction of the Concordia, you're sent to command squadrons aboard the auspiciously christened TCS Victory.

This technologically astounding sequel completes the war-ridden chronicles of the Terran-Kilrathi conflict, with a final showdown occurring on one of the homeworlds. Which will it be -- Earth or Kilrah? Only a true Wing Commander can write the ending to this thrilling series ...

The first true Interactive Movie for your PC!

As Hollywood film techniques merge with computer graphics, ORIGIN leads the way by creating an interactive movie starring you! Heart of the Tiger, the latest installment in the Commander series, exposes space sim players to a world founded on tomorrow's technology.

Four CDs -- the equivalent of over 1,000 floppy disks -- hold full speech, explosive sound, an interactive plot and thousands of live action video images. Wing III uses fully textured, polygonal objects, stunning synthetic sets, multiple camera angles and completely interactive player control to bring space combat simulation to unparalleled levels of detail and cinematic realism.
