

THE HORDE: Hordlings are loud, red, ridiculous-and hungry. With a particular taste for villages. Your village.

It's your turf, so you fight back. You chop with the magical Grimthwacker, puree with archers, dredge moats and build rows of spike-lined pits. But still they come.

Hordlings gobble everything that moves - or doesn't.

Belly-busting original action-strategy mayhem. Mouthwatering texture-mapped 3D amazons, knights, and cows. Original finger-lickin' good music: CD-quality slurps and burps. Drool buckets and nose plugs sold separately.

Features:

- + 35 minutes of live action digitized video
- + Mouth-watering texture-mapped 3D characters and background
- + Randomly generated game fields for high replay value
- + Game Pro Magazine gave The Horde a perfect score of four fives
