

TuneLand™ starring Howie Mandel

TuneLand has received many awards. Entertainment Weekly selected TuneLand as one of the "Top 10 Best Kids' Products of the Year." It is the only CD-ROM in the list and is ahead of Lassie and Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. TuneLand was also chosen "Best Early Childhood CD-ROM" by the National Parenting Publication. Walter Mossberg with The Wall Street Journal said, "It's the best animation I've seen on a personal computer."
