

synopses

3101 – “Soul Survivor”

While heading back to the training center, Sean is hit by ZACK MCEWAN, a twenty-year-old riding his skateboard while carrying his surfboard. Unbeknownst to Sean, Zack is going to be one of the new trainees for the team. CARRIE SHARP, a rich newbie from San Diego is immediately attracted to Jason and soon has him completely vamped. Because of stormy weather Sean is forced to cancel an exhibition race. Cliff, a nemesis from Jason's past, challenges Sean to go out anyway—just the two of them. Cliff gets into trouble and Sean and Leigh are forced to rescue him.

3102 – “Knife in the Heart”

Kekoa has a nightmarish experience with three lifeguarding emergencies occurring at once. J.D. and Zack arrive to save the day but J.D. is experiencing personal turmoil that is wrecking havoc with his temper. J.D. is in contact with ex-girl friend, Jessie. Jenna, still bitter over the break-up is making life difficult for Sean. Kekoa gets a blast from her past when her former boyfriend suddenly makes a reappearance in her life. Carrie confronts Jason; he wants to forget all about their dalliance, but she warns him that it isn't over yet.

3103 – “Bad Boyz”

During a helicopter training session, Zack jumps in against orders to save a kiteboarder and Carrie freezes and is unable to help. Leigh finds a potential sponsor for the center. She quickly lives to regret it when the potential sponsor, ERIKA, played by Catherine Oxenberg, is immediately attracted to Sean. During another training exercise, Carrie once again hesitates, but this time Zack grabs her and jumps into the water with her. Sean and Erika return to her hotel room for a night of passion. But, in the middle of their embrace, Sean gets cold feet. Back at the training center, Sean tries to explain what happened to Leigh and also confides that he would like for her to handle some of their business affairs.

3104 – “Dangerous Games”

Leigh feels Sean is in her personal business and the two of them fight. Meanwhile, Kekoa and J.D. are having problems with her naughty cousin NANI, who gets involved with a dangerous crowd of boys and has Kekoa end up saving her. Leigh and Sean have another argument and decide to keep their private and professional lives separate even though they are both attracted to the other. Sean and J.D. accompany Kekoa to a bar where the boys are partying and warn them that if they ever lay hands on Nani or any other girls ever again, they will have to answer to them. Pat Morita plays Kekoa's traditionalist and strict father.

(more...)

synopses

3105 – “Stone Cold”

MAYA MORGAN, played by Daisy Fuentes, a pretty blonde volleyball player who happens to be a childhood friend of Carrie is immediately smitten with Jason and he, apparently, with her. Young hooligan DANNY is trying to rip off a car when it catapults off the edge of the dock. Jason and Sean pull Danny to safety. Sean takes a liking to Danny, whom he feels he can reform. Maya and Jason have a night of passion, but the next morning, she is strangely distant from him. Later, when he tries to talk to her in the water, she suffers a heart attack.

3106 – “Broken Promises”

Danny is planning to rob a family, but ends up saving their son instead. Sean offers Danny a chance to reform. Kekoa and her father hit a new low and she storms out in a fit and winds up at J.D.’s house. Danny becomes more trouble at the center than anyone had envisioned. After a jet ski is missing, Sean is forced to admit that mentoring Danny might have been a mistake. That night, using the keys he stole, Danny attempts to rob the Training Center. This time, when the cops ask Sean if Danny was responsible, Sean “sends him up the river.” Kekoa and J.D. start being more aggressively intimate with each other.

3107 – “Dream Girl”

Jenna continues her all-out assault on Sean. J.D. needs back up in order to bring a woman in to shore without damaging her spinal chord. Sean sends Kekoa and Zack. Zack ignores Kekoa’s warning about riding the jet ski over the waves, wipes out and the jet ski rams into J.D. Sean has no choice but to temporarily suspend Zack. J.D.’s brush with death makes Kekoa realize how much she truly loves him. Zack, completely bowled over by this turn of events meets RACHEL, a beautiful woman who makes him feel a little better about himself. He visits J.D., who does not seem to harbor any ill will. J.D. and Kekoa are now ready to move their relationship to a more serious level. Sean offers Zack another chance.

3108 – “The Cage”

While watching over the Ironman Triathlon, J.D. and Sean must perform a rescue of two divers who have come face to face with a tiger shark. Blake, an ill-intentioned “shark-hunt” tour operator, is responsible for creating the unnatural shark activity. Blake avoids Sean’s efforts to close him down and causes a shark attack on a tourist. Sean finds out about J.D. and Kekoa’s affair and is furious. Blake has an accident during a “shark-hunt” trip and puts himself and his clients in deadly peril. Sean, J.D. and Kekoa are able to save the tour group.

3109 – “Ben”

While surfing, a good friend of Sean’s drowns. Despondent and overwhelmed, Sean disappears. Jenna takes over the plans for the “Oceanfest.” Sean, out on his canoe to be alone, gets caught in a huge wave and capsizes. By the next morning, he is getting hallucinogenic visitations from members of the team. Jenna takes the lead in several of the Oceanfest events, resulting in humorous disasters. Brian, a friend of Sean’s, sees that a canoe is missing and rushes out to find him. Sean knows he is probably doomed and sees Ben, his long lost son. He tries to catch up to him but runs out of energy and slips below the surface...only to be pulled back to safety by Brian.

(more...)

synopses

3110 – “Ties That Bind”

The training period is coming to an end and Sean ultimately cannot promote Zack, who is completely devastated. A father and daughter become friends with the team and have a dark secret they must hide from the law. Sean and Jason save the daughter during a daring jet-ski rescue and the father is arrested for abducting his daughter years before. Zack approaches Sean and Jason; he is putting together everything he has in order to pay for an additional session with the team—he will do anything to stay. Sean and Jason decide to let him do it. The only problem is that his new trainer will be none other than Carrie.

3111 – “Black Widow”

A beautiful woman’s husband is mysteriously drowned and Leigh is suspicious. Sean unexpectedly meets his ex-wife, Maggie. Leigh finds Sondra, the drowned man’s wife, in an embrace with her young lover who later tries to drown Leigh. Sean finds Maggie has remarried and is furious with her for not letting him know. Jason comes to Leigh’s rescue and the boyfriend is convicted of murder, but the wife walks away free. Sean and Maggie admit to love between them but cannot escape their past.

3112 – “Ex Files”

Sean rescues his ex-wife MAGGIE. Her husband Bryant is infuriated that Sean knew about Maggie’s pregnancy before he did, which causes a serious rift between the newly married couple. Sean realizes that Bryant is a good guy, a great catch for Maggie and decides to let she and Bryant make up on their own. J.D. has decided to make one final “go” of getting along with Mr. Tanaka by going on a fishing trip with him. Mr. Tanaka gets hold of a big fish and winds up being pulled overboard and J.D. rescues him. Mr. Tanaka comes to a new respect for J.D., but he still does not think Kekoa should marry him.

3113 – “Boiling Point”

While working on a new website, Zack succeeds in shutting down power to the entire north shore. HAROLD SCHUSTER, a big donor, is coming to visit the center so everything has to be in tiptop shape. Schuster’s spoiled and arrogant daughter BRIT is giving everyone, especially Jason, a hard time. J.D. proposes to Kekoa, and she accepts his proposal. Charlene, a computer geek, turns the power back on and she and Zack go out on a date.

3114 – “The Stalker”

Sam (the adrenaline-rushing pilot from Dangerous Games) has come back into Leigh’s life and he, Leigh and Carrie rescue two spear fisherman together. Eric, one of the fisherman, starts stalking Carrie and she is almost killed when he becomes violent. Sean realizes he is jealous of Sam, but has to let Leigh go since he’s not ready to have a relationship with her. Leigh realizes that Sam is still keeping things from her so she confronts him. He confesses that he’s in a special undercover division of the Navy and is back because he never got over her. She thinks she’s ready to try for a longer-term relationship.