This month, our first and second prizewinners can look good on paper with the assistance of OKI printers, while our runners-up will be able to keep the younger members of their families happily occupied with CD-ROMs from Living Books

This month, we've got two superb prizes for readers who are serious about their printing as well as a whole batch of children's software for the runners-up.

First prize

If you run a small business from home – or even if you just do lots of administrative tasks that need printing – we're sure you'll leap at the chance to win this month's first prize.

The OKI OL610ex is a neat personal printer that delivers professional-quality results. In fact, earlier this year OKI beat off all competitors to secure a place in every Bass pub in the country because it was deemed the most efficient and cost-effective printer available. It's a page printer, offering printing of 600dpi (dots per inch) quality, at an impressive six pages per minute. It has three bitmapped fonts and no less than 45 scalable fonts, so it should be able to cope with even the most demanding of documents.

As well, the OL610ex is environmentally friendly – it's ozone-free, it's Energy Star approved and it has a toner recycling system. As an added bonus, it will work with recycled paper, so you can be sure you'll be doing your bit to help the environment.

Second prize

This month's second-prize winner will be carrying off the OKIPAGE 4w, a printer with a footprint scarcely larger than the A4 paper it prints. Despite its size, this printer is a powerful machine, giving 600dpi-class output for both text and graphics. Best of all, it's really easy to use via the various versions of Windows 3 or Windows 95, so you can get printing straight away.

Runners-up

This month's runners-up prizes are especially for the younger members of the family – two lucky runners-up will get a valuable library of 10 Living Books CD-ROMs, including favourites such as Dr Seuss's Green Eggs and Ham, Arthur's Birthday and Sheila Rae the Brave. Ten more runners-up will receive a copy of Sheila Rae the Brave.

How to win

Simply answer the questions below and complete the tie-breaker.

1. Which national chain of pubs recently enlisted the help of OKI's

- OL610ex?
- 2. What is the print quality of the OKIPAGE 4w (in dots per inch)?
- 3. Which doctor wrote the story of Green Eggs and Ham?

Tie-breaker

I'd be OK with an OKI because...
