Introduction

BiblePro is an advanced research system. It allows you to do multiple searches on any book's found pages and output the found verses in a number of ways.

Basically all you have to do is search for the terms that interest you and then flip through the verses which were found.

You may at any time lend this software to anyone so they too can try out BiblePro.

Requirements

BiblePro requires the following:

Operating System (Any one of the following)

1. Windows 95
2. Windows NT 3.51

RAM Memory: 8 megs

Hard Drive: 20 megs

Getting Started

Thanks for trying out BiblePro!

BiblePro allows you to research the entire Bible in a few seconds.

Once the software has been installed and is running simply enter text into the text boxes and press any of the find buttons. You can do a simple find, an advanced search and even a query!

Once verses of text you wish has been found, you can print it, copy it to the clipboard and paste it to other programs or export the text to a text file.

To see the next found verse simply click on the control, on the bottom of the screen, with the arrows.

Check out the tutorial for a 5 minute walk through all the great features in BiblePro.

WHAT DO YOU GET FOR REGISTERING:

Tells you what you get for registering.

ABOUT:

A very cool About screen.

Overview - Printing

To print text simply find the page(s) you would like then click on the print menu item. To alter the page margins or the print size choose the print setup button or the print menu item.

Overview - Exporting Texts

Once you have located texts to export to a text file in ASCII, Lotus, Excel, etc.. format choose the export button or the export menu item from the file menu.

Simply then create a text file name you would like the file to have and the current page on the screen will be exported to a text file.

Overview - Copying text to the Clipboard

Highlight the text you would like to copy to the clipboard, choose this menu item or press CTRL + C. The highlighted text will be placed into the clipboard.

Then move to the program(ALT + TAB) you would like to paste to and press the CTRL + V key.

Overview - Searching Tips

1. If you are having problems finding a page of text, type less. For example the search text:

"Son of man"

can be found by simply typing:

"Son"

You don't have to type the entire text, limit your search to be more specific.

3. In the ADVANCED SEARCH tool, use lots of words that mean the same thing when searching and use the AND and OR conditions to find lots of pages.

Customer Support

Every user of BiblePro who has registered gets free upgrades for ever.

What do I get for Registering?

Registering helps me cover the costs of developing more software to help serve the Cause of God. I am a youth who loves God and loves to program. Thanks for registering, it is a big encouragement!

BiblePro is a fully working version. However, you can only use it for the 30 evaluation period. After that time it will no longer function.

By registering you get a code sent to you by e-mail which opens up BiblePro for long term use.

You also get:

1. Free technical support (vink@icis.net)
2. Free upgrade for ever by e-mail. Your code will always work on future versions.
3. Free access to more databases as they become available.

Thanks for considering registering,

Tutorial

Using BiblePro is very easy after you type a few of the buttons. There are many different ways to look up information in the Bible.

This button lets you look for a specific book, chapter and verse

This button lets you search through your notes

This is the Advanced Search button

This button will Query the Bible. It will list only those verses with the conditions you specify.

This will 'unquery' your query. To get back all the verses, click here.

Finds the next verse with the text you entered. In this case, "LORD" was entered.

Finds the previous verse.

When you find a verse that you would like to make a note about, forget that highlighter! Just type it into the bottom text box. WinBible will take care of it for you. You can even search for your notes.

When you want to print, or export verses to a text file simply click this button. You can print as little or as much as you wish!

Click here to print what anything you want.

I've given you many many ways to research the Bible. Choose the one you want, they all work great!

Enjoy and LEARN!
