Reader Feedback

Stellar 7: It seems as though Stellar 7 could have been better - The opening screen is far better than the rest of the game. Some of the music on the various planets gets tiresome quickly. Alan Kula - Pasadena, California

King's Quest 6: The soundtrack to this game alone is worth the price. The graphics are excellent, and the speed in screen change is absolutely incredible. It is very fast even on a low-end Macintosh. The puzzles are challenging, and it is well-suited for both beginning and expert adventure players. This is by far the best port by Sierra yet. Charles Kung - Princeton, New Jersey

Indiana Jones and the Fate of Atlantis: A must-have for all Mac gamers! Jerry C. Harmon - Portland, Oregon

Iron Helix: A really enjoyable and engaging experience. The graphics are great. If only the screen was bigger. Mike Lanzetta - Taylor, Michigan

Maelstrom: This game is excellent, except for the fact that you don't have reverse thrusters! I can't stop or slow down much once I get going! Pete Ware- Astra, Canada
