

When you paste together movie segments with different sizes, the movie window stays at the larger size throughout the movie—even while playing the parts that don't fill the window.

You can check a movie's exact dimensions by choosing Get Movie Info from the Movie menu.