

The script has a hot and, at the same time, romantic story. But it's still hard core in the purest Private style. The director chosen for this new and ambitious project is the many times awarded Chrisophe Clark. "Les obstacles de l'amour" was shot in Prague and tells about a love story between Claudia, who works in a night club called Rosemary's, and Chris, the owner of the club. While having dinner before the night club opens, romantic feelings come to the surface... But they start to feel uncomfortable, and decide to go back to the night club. Claudia's working pal discovers what is going on and warns her seriously about falling in love with a man like Chris. The film continues with many obstacles for Claudia and Chris before they end up between the sheets.
