†Watch it !! DO NOT USE the attached serial Numbers !!

VocalTech will harrass you if you do!

They are able to trace your IP.

They are threatening with a fine, and jail time.

Little late... they are fucking with me as well.

I can't believe this motherfuckers... who the hell do they think they are?

Isn't this type of message illegal if a warning is not supplied that "Your serial number will be checked with our server, please type carefully" or something? Would everyone like to see this shit? (see below)

Your illegal Use of an unauthorized pirated ClearPhone access code across state lines has been documented and traced to you. This action by you is in violation of US copyright (C) laws and an attempt to steal from Engineering Consulting owner of the Clearphone program. Your actions are punishable by a $10,000 fine, you could loose your access to the internet, and you can go to jail.

Your usage of illegal codes will be reported to authorities within 10 days unless you properly purchase valid ClearPhone registration codes directly from Engineering Consulting and promise not to distribute or use the illegal codes that you have obtained. The cost of clearphone is $79.95. Further use of the ClearPhone program in any way by you without purchase will be cause for additional violation reports to the FBI, your local police department and your ISP (Internet Service Provider).

We regret having to take this action. Engineering Consulting will not tolerate illegal access to Clearphone! You will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Engineering Consulting is the Home of ClearPhone which is The Ultimate Macintosh Internet Communications tool for Video Conferencing and document sharing for MAC's Free demo and home page is at: <http://www.clearphone.com>
