If my dear love were but the child of state
It might for fortune's bastard be unfathered,
As subject to time's love or to time's hate,
Weeds among weeds or flowers with flowers gathered.
No, it was builded far from accident; 5
It suffers not in smiling pomp, nor falls
Under the blow of thrall's discontent
Whereto th'inviting time our fashion calls.
It fears not policy, that heretic 10
Which works on leases of short-numbered hours,
But all alone stands hugely politic,
That it nor grows with heat nor drowns with showers.
To this I witness call the fools of time,
Which die for goodness, who have lived for crime.
