

GAMES

Beetle Run 2.1

What's bugging you?

Help a beetle through a maze in this simple game. The maze is divided into squares you can rotate. By rotating the paths, you guide your bug through the maze. As the beetle passes through each square it turns solid, making it more difficult to keep going.

- even levels
- high score list
- sound effects
- learn facts about beetles as you play

Briscola 1.0

Ancient card game

Can you master this century-old Italian card game? It's similar to the card game Trumps. The aim is to beat your opponents card by discarding a higher value card of the same suit or a card from the trump suit.

- few game statistics
- choose skill level of opponent — easy, medium or hard
- on-screen scorecard

(Application by Tencas Group)

Droids 1.0

Machine combat

Battle against highly adaptive androids to regain control of Terra. The most primitive android, Sexus, is determined but not too smart. As you play, the androids evolve into Super Droids, becoming more intelligent and technologically advanced.

- high scores
- onscreen controls
- track game statistics

(Application by Quarter Note Software)

Enigma 1.3

Challenging puzzles

Crack a color code and open the Enigma Briefcase to advance through the levels. To make things harder — and more fun — your enemies taunt you when you make mistakes. Beware of random acts of sabotage that'll hinder your progress.

- amusing animations
- fun sounds
- multiple levels
- increasing difficulty

Galactica

Galactic conquest

Conquer the galaxy in this sci-fi action adventure. Build starships, colonize planets, protect your territory and battle the other players in combat. Your star systems defend themselves from attacking ships based on their level of technology. Higher levels of technology allow your ships to move faster, and give them an advantage over ships with lower tech levels. Will you survive?

- network support
- supports messaging among Network players
- more than eight computer opponents
- limit the amount of time per turn
- compare players

Meat Gone Bad 2.1

Smells rather funny

You're in an all-out food fight in this Space Invaders-style game. Pilot a mustard bottle and shoot spoiled steaks, T-bones, meatballs and hot-dogs. The rotting foods fling legions of germs and bacteria at you. You may need napkins when you play this game.

- ear-pounding music
- high score list
- colorful graphics
- play your own MOD files

(Application by CerebraSoft)

Powerball

Battle with your paddle

Eliminate bricks in this updated version of Breakout. Great graphics and gameplay. Listen to the thundering soundtrack as you battle to clear each level. Different bricks take different amounts of hits.
