

Perform custom activities for this computer at startup, including setting the trash position (for systems that have multiple monitor configurations, like a PowerBook) and checking for the need to backup. In this script, the "backup day" is set to Sunday and the backup program to use is set to the Backup module from MacTools. Change this as is necessary.