Fine volume slide up

Where [E][A][x] means "increment the volume of the current sample by x". The incrementing takes place at the beginning of the division, and hence there is no sliding. You cannot slide beyond volume 64.