

Welcome to the Features section of the .net CD. This is where you can put into action the software that we feature in the magazine. For this month, it's the turn of Internet telephony and on-line gameshows ÐÊtry them, and let us know what you think.

Internet Telephones

Internet telephony enables you to speak to people from all over the world - and see them, too - for the price of a local call. Mary Lojkin lets her modem do the talking.

On-line Gameshows

TV game shows are the quick-fix cash miracle of modern society, smothered with extra cheese. Cotton Ward retains her dignity by playing gameshows on-line.
