Before you transfer your Web site to your remote server, you should run the code through a HTML validator, in order to remove stray or unnecessary code and to speed up access to your Web site.   CSE HTML Validator is a HTML development tool that assists in the creation of syntactically correct HTML documents. Just open an HTML document with HTML Validator and it will automatically check your syntax.