esgear places a panel on the side of your Web browser window. It offers a multitude of clever tools including a feature called e-trails. Visit a Web site and click on its button and e-trail will bring you a list of related subject site links with descriptions. Other tools include an online dictionary, mini email client, Web page translator, search engine and more...