

NewsMonger has some unique properties not found in other USENET newsreaders. Among its abilities, it can save you time finding articles of relevance among the entire newsgroup network. The program incorporates a search client that uses the Alta Vista News search server feature to search messages from the thousands of newsgroups in a single pass for articles that match your criteria.