

Eye Browser is a picture viewer for anybody with large numbers of picture files floating around your hard drive, whether they are pictures downloaded from the Net or design elements for your Web site. Eye Browse features a browser like interface for navigating folders full of images, and a unique favourites feature where to can add any pictures to a favourites list exactly like a Web browser.