

By entering an IP address or URL in the "Host to trace window", instantly Neotrace will begin to trace and display the route of the connection. From the information delivered to your screen you can tell whether a problem Internet connection is caused by your ISP or further along the chain. Neotrace can also help you effectively trace the spammers. Find more details in the program's help files.