

Aeon's Cathedral is an ideal 2-player map. Most action will take place in the Cathedral's main central area. The map is not too large so both players shouldn't have difficulty finding each other but also features enough crooks and crannies for the odd break when you need a breather. To compliment the medieval surroundings the weapon of choice in this map has to be the crossbow.