

Unfortunately this program does come at a price. The free application on the CD enables you to configure Applets purchased directly from Demicron. They have included one freebie applet that displays text messages rising from a shimmering sea. The Configurator is GUI controlled for ease and it even writes the necessary HTML code required for pasting into your editor.