The title of program says what it does in one bold statement; it is designed to help you manage your Web site. Essentially this is an intelligent FTP program that will maintain your Web site files by only transferring new and updated files from your PC to your Web space saving you the time of puzzling it all out yourself.