

Using WebWhacker you can download and organise your favourite sites for offline browsing. Downloading Web pages or even entire Web sites is made manageable through the intuitive wizard enabling you design settings to set the depth of link levels to explore, and also exclude files with specified extensions. After completing the download you can view the pages using the built-in browser and navigate by clicking Web links or using the tree view navigation panel.