

News-Lynx provides a valuable resource for anybody interested in keeping up with global current news events. It's a well-organised database of Web link shortcuts to hundreds of newspaper Web sites around the world. Three drop down menus let you isolate the global location of the Web links to either state, province (USA and Canada) or country listings. A page of relevant links for that area is then loaded into your browser window.