

Advanced Dialer is a replacement Internet connection dialler and monitoring device to replace the default set up that comes as part of Windows. When started, it redials multiple numbers until a connection is made. It then monitors your connection and will automatically reconnect if the carrier is dropped. Advanced Dialer also has the facility to track on-line usage and calculate how much money is being spent.