

This is a remake of the classic connect four (four in a row) game. This two-player game takes place on a seven by six rectangular board. Both players alternately slide a piece of their own colour (red or yellow) into one of the columns on the board. The goal is to get four pieces in a row. All directions count (horizontal, vertical and diagonal). Fyrad supports single and Internet multiplayer games.