Jon's Downloader is a simple and effective batch downloading program supporting HTTP and FTP. Keep the program open in your system tray and browse the Web. When you find files you'd like to download, right click the download link and copy the link to clipboard, Jon's Downloader reads and adds the link to its download list. Just click "Begin Download" and away it goes.