

Cult 3D is a plug-in that brings 3D interactive objects to your Web browser. The example shown is a rotating watch with moving hands. Other examples can be viewed by visiting the Cult3D Web site. The benefit of this technology is the small file size of these highly detailed 3D models and the ability for the user to not only rotate and zoom into them but actually operate moving parts.