

WAP is the current big thing on the Internet. This new technology allows supported mobile phones to access e-mail and visit special WML Web sites directly from their mobile phones. Normal Web browsers do not support WML and skip the code. But use WinWAP light and you too can take advantage of WML Web sites on your PC. In reality WML sites are normally just simplified versions of a normal Web sites, minus the graphics.