

InfraNET is a special Web browser designed specifically for finding information on the Internet. The application queries several search engines from your keyword/s. InfraNET supports over 300 search engines but searches are isolated to the most appropriate engines when you select a subject category from the pull down list.