

SmartSaver Pro is a specialised Web graphics application. Its basic function is designed for converting different image and animation file formats into Web ready Jpeg and GIF files. On top of that it includes excellent image compression options to optimise the images and animations for size and includes side-by-side previews to show you just how much image degradation has occurred compared to the original during compression. Other features include image slicing, image maps, JavaScript rollovers and table-based graphics composition.