

Magic Button is a very friendly system for creating Web page Java-based buttons, even if you have no programming knowledge. All options are accessed through a simple tabbed interface for picking colours text, background images, sounds, buttons up, mouse-over, and clicked behaviours. A .wav to .au sound conversion utility is even included. Once you've finished the software will produce the necessary code and graphics ready to be added to the Web page.