

Burger Tools combines two Web designer tools in one program. Firstly the Web colour picker enables you to choose a colour from the colour palette and obtain the hex code equivalent ready to be pasted into your HTML documents. The second tool is the Browser Window Sizer. This shows you how many screen pixels are actually available for displaying a Web page in Internet Explorer and Netscape Navigator using different screen resolutions and also taking into account space used by the Window border and toolbar.