

LinkResearch can be a valuable tool to aid Web site promotion. The application enables you to query the major search engines on the Internet to discover other sites linking to your domain or linking to a precise page in your Web site. The Settings menu on the toolbar opens a multi-tabbed window that allows you to configure your Search, Report, Viewer, and Proxy settings.