

SERanker is a valuable search engine Web position analyst application. Enter your domain name (the Web site URL), select the search engines to be queried and input keywords from your site. SERanker will survey the search engines and let you know your ranking position, grade you and give you an overall comment on the position. SERanker supports over 30 search engines including both international and localised engines such as Excite UK.