

Call For Papers

Fourth International Congress on Crossdressing, Sex & Gender Issues May 4-7, 2000 • Philadelphia, Pa. • The Warwick Hotel

- Theme: • Gender Variance—Beyond 2000
- Format: • Three Plenary sessions: A, B, C
• Three sets of 50-minute concurrent sessions
• Workshops; one and two hour formats (optional)
• Each conference day will be structured to provide ample time to explore the meeting site. Meetings and workshops will take place between 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM. Social and business functions will be at lunch, dinner, and in the evenings.
- Themes: • Relationships Between Gender Identity and Sexuality
• Gender Variance and The Legal System
• Evolution of Gender
• Gender Variance & Spirituality
- Papers: • Papers offering research data and theoretical positions are preferred. Experimental work is particularly desired. Clinical material is welcome particularly to illustrate how counseling helps resolve transgender issues.
- Workshops: • There will be opportunity to present significant material in workshops. Submit topic, length of time required, goals of the workshop, and facilities required for presentation. Workshops will be open to all conference registrants.
- Abstracts: • Abstracts should be a maximum of 250 words, single page, typed, and double-spaced. List all authors/presenters, affiliations, addresses, and telephone numbers (not counted as words). Indicate audio/visual requirements on the abstract. A/V facilities cannot be provided without notification prior to selection of papers. Six (6) photocopies of the abstract are required.

Submit copies of Paper/Workshop Abstracts to :

- Program Chair c/o Renaissance, 987 Old Eagle School Road, Ste. 719, Wayne, Pa 19087

Questions, ideas, or general correspondence may be directed to:

- Congress, c/o Renaissance, 987 Old Eagle School Rd., Suite 719, Wayne, PA 19087
Phone 610-975-9119 • email: congress@ren.org

The Warwick Hotel is holding a Congress room block at $159 (single) daily rate.

Conference dates and hours are designed to provide attendees ample time to share Center City Philadelphia with their families.