

Miniaturize Window command

Hides the window you're working in.

When you miniaturize a window, the window remains open but you can't see it. To have the window displayed again, choose its name from the Documents pop-up at the bottom of the screen or press the Reminders... command.

The Miniaturize Window command does the same thing as the miniaturize button in the window's title bar.