Close Window command

Closes the key window.

On a Microsoft Windows platform, closing the window quits the application.
On Mach platforms, to have the window displayed again, press the Reminders... command.

The Close Window command does the same thing as the close button in the window's title bar.