

Freecell

Shareware Notification

This version of Freecell is being released as shareware. You may use it free of charge for 30 days. If you choose to use this program after the 30 day trial period, please register your copy with me for a $5 (or more!) registration fee.

Registration provides you with the latest version of the program, and the knowledge that you have helped to support Shareware.

Along with your registration, please include any suggestions you may have to enhance this program. For any person who provides a new suggestion that I incorporate, I will send $10. (Two or more suggestions will not receive any other bonuses!)

For those of you wanting source code, it will be available for $50.

When sending your registration, please include your name and address.
