Animation is the strongest feature of Formula Graphics.
It has five animation formats and four playback modes. An animation can be played transparently over any background. Palette management automatically allocates colors and remaps animation frames on the fly.