Before deciding to purchase our software, please be sure to download, install, and test-drive the evaluation versions that we provide. We do not offer refunds on software that has been opened or where the unlock code, registered version or session password has already been sent to the customer. We go to great lengths to produce a trial version with which customers can ensure their satisfaction and system compatibility. This allows them to make an informed purchasing decision. Once that purchase has been made, however, we replace defective media free of charge once but do not offer a cash refund. All sales final. We feel this policy is consistent with the major software retailers worldwide.
