

Text Copy Contracts

These contracts allow you to copy text between SmartElements that support text. Note that contracts that copy text between form elements are in the “Form interelement” contract category. Contracts in this category copy text between non-form elements and between non-form elements and form elements. This category does not contain contracts that copy text between form elements (e.g. between two edit boxes).

Refer to the descriptions of these contracts for more information.